Aquatic Plant Management Contractors

Last updated: January 2010

The Vermont Department of Environmental Conservation compiled this list to assist in locating vendors who provide a variety of aquatic plant management services. This list is not all-inclusive and does not represent an endorsement of the companies or products by this Department.

The Department encourages you to speak directly with the contractors listed to evaluate their experience, compare costs and request references.

This list is updated periodically. Please contact Ann Bove at the address listed below if you have any questions, changes or additions.
